4. To the maximum extent permitted by law, I accept all risk of loss, liability, damage, injury, illness or death to any person or property, which may be suffered or caused in connection with my membership of the Club or AUSA or my participation in Karate, however it may arise (including by negligence of the Club, AUSA or their officers, members, instructors, volunteers, servants or agents), and I release and indemnify the Club, AUSA and their officers, members, instructors, volunteers, servants and agents in relation to any such loss, liability, damage, injury, illness or death; and

Under sections 60 and 61 of the Australian Consumer Law (SA), if a person in trade or commerce supplies you with services (including recreational services¹), there is:

- A statutory guarantee that those services will be rendered with due care and skill; and
- A statutory guarantee that those services, and any product resulting from those services, will be reasonably fit for the purpose for which the services are being acquired (as long as that purpose is made known to the supplier); and
- statutory guarantee that those services, and any product resulting from those services, will be of such a nature, and quality, state or condition, that they might reasonably be expected to achieve the result that the consumer wishes to achieve (as long as that wish is made known to the supplier or a person with whom negotiations have been conducted in relation to the acquisition of the services).
